Re: Shahin v. Darling, et al.
C.A. No. 08-295 GMS

Dear Chief Judge Sleet:

I also join in Mr. Morse's objection to Ms. Shahin's "amended" brief. It is not simply a sur-reply brief as it makes additional new arguments. Absent court approval, the brief should be stricken.

While I understand Ms. Shahin's desire to have the "last word", and while the court traditionally has given pro se litigants significant leeway, I fear that providing such leeway in this instance will result in Ms. Shahin seeking the "last word" in every instance.

Respectfully yours,

/s/ Kevin R. Slattery
